Serving in Eurasia with DOOR International

spring 2020

It is amazing how quickly our lives can change. Everyone around the world seems to be feeling this right now. We are no exception. Even before the coronavirus reared its ugly head we were looking at several big changes for our family this year. One that will impact our lives hugely is that Raeleigh has graduated from high school! She is preparing to enter university in the fall. We are so excited for her. We will miss her so much that it is hard to imagine. We plan, God willing, to come to the US at some point in May and help Raeleigh get set up and settled. Figuring out tickets is proving to be a complicated process. Please pray that God will help us.

Now that Josh is a Bible translation consultant with a specialty in sign language, his role within DOOR is changing. This began last spring shortly after he became a consultant; he started working with a second translation team. Now we are planning to return to Kenya towards the end of this year so Josh can support consultants in training. Josh will also travel to Eurasia and Ethiopia as needed, continuing to support the translation teams, checking and approving their translations. With the coronavirus impacting the world, we are unsure how and when these plans will unfold.

community testing in Eurasia

Due to the state of emergency that has been declared here, our office has been closed. The team will continue to work from their homes. Some of the team members only have access to the internet through their phones which makes working remotely difficult. Please pray for us as we figure out how to solve these challenges and make this time as efficient and effective as possible. The current state of emergency will last through May 13th.

praise & prayer

➔ Praise God that Raeleigh has completed high school and is ready to begin a new season in her life.

➔ As Raeleigh prepares for college and applies for scholarships, pray that God will grant her favor.

➔ Praise God that everyone on the team is healthy.

➔ Pray for God's perfect timing for our departure from Eurasia. We are not sure at this point what travel will look like in the coming months.

➔ Pray that we will be able to get the internet issues sorted so that the team can work more effectively from their homes.

➔ Pray that God will use the Deaf believers here as a light to this nation pointing people to Christ in these uncertain times.

➔ Pray God will help us to trust his providential hand in all that is taking place globally and its effect on us and the team.
