Serving in Kenya with DOOR International

celebrating the New Year at DOOR

spring 2022

Three sign language translation teams have arrived at the DOOR campus here in Kenya. The teams are from Botswana, Eswatini, and Zimbabwe. They will be here for six months doing intensive training in Bible translation. Josh is involved in the training for these teams. It is encouraging to see their passion to learn and the joy they have in knowing God has allowed them to be part of the team that will be translating the scripture into their sign languages. After their training they will return to their home countries and begin the challenging work of taking God's Word and transferring it from one language to another.

We also have a group of Deaf people on campus creating resources to help Deaf pastors and church planters. It is wonderful to have people from so many different places here working together. We have people from 12 countries on the campus at the moment. It is exciting to see what God is doing and to see all of these people's desire to see God work among the Deaf communities in their different countries.

praise & prayer

- ➡ Thank God for the group of people here at the DOOR campus learning and preparing to translate scripture into their languages.
- ➡ Praise God for the resource development team. Pray that God will bless their work and that it will be a huge help to Deaf pastors around the world.
- ➡ Pray for Josh as he prepares for and teaches classes.
- ➡ Pray as Josh continues to work with the Kai* and Kenya translation projects checking their translations for accuracy.
- ➡ Pray for wisdom as we manage our time. Life can feel extremely busy.

Josh with his parents

Josh's parents are here in Kenya visiting us. Josh's father, Jon, had to make a trip to the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) to do a situation safety assessment for the Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF) team working there. This past year the MAF families had to leave their homes and move to another town due to the militia warfare taking place in and around the town MAF had their base in. Sadly the situation is still very bad.

While Jon was in DRC, Josh's mom, Cher was able to come to Kenya. Once Jon finished his work in DRC he joined us all here in Kenya. It is great to be together as a family. One of the hardest parts of missionary life is that you spend vast quantities of it away from your family. We are grateful for this time to be together.
